MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Training (Special)

SUBJECT: Student Critiques of CFA Course

1. Forwarded herewith are copies of critiques written by some of the students in the last CFA course. If no name follows the critique, the student took the option of turning in an anonymous critique.

2. We are attempting to improve the course along the lines mentioned by some of the students wherever we feel their comments are valid and change is feasible. The desire to have more time for some subjects will be difficult to comply with during the November running of the course. In fact, because of the holidays, we will be forced to compress some parts of the course. Incidentally, these comments may be the answer to the suggestion that we try to cut the CFA to something like two weeks.

3. Because of the so much shortened November schedule and also because of a too small staff, we hope that the November course will be attended by no more than 20 students. We also hope that all students who enter will be able to finish the complete course.

4. Since we have copies of these critiques, you may retain these if you wish.
